ANNOUNCEMENT

Fellow Breeders, Stockmen, Farmers:

On account of advancing age and having my residence in Humboldt, and not being able to be in constant personal contact with my herd, I have decided to dispense my herd of Scotch Shorthorns May 3, 1922. In making dispersion of my herd I realize that my best efforts at constructive cattle breeding are going into this sale. This fact I modestly feel should merit your attendance at the sale.

The American Shorthorn Breeders' Association makes this statement:

"Statistics show that over four and three-quarters millions fewer cattle were marketed in 1921 than in 1918; and this decrease has occurred during a period of drastic enforced liquidation."

This statement being true it is surely an opportune time to invest in good breeding Shorthorns, as I firmly believe that registered cattle values will be considerably higher in a short period of time.

The offering consists of a fine lot of breeding cows and heifers, largely daughters of Collynie Goods, Supreme Certificate, and Village Choice.

Some by other well known sires as a perusal of the catalog will reveal. In bulls it is a desirable offering and quite a few of them should appeal to established breeders or those starting registered herds who are looking for desirable herd bulls.

The cattle will be in nice breeding condition. Some of the cows or heifers with calves at foot may be a little thin, which usually prove the best investment for the buyer.

Guarantee—All cows with calves at foot, or that show to be well forward in calf, are considered breeders and no further guarantee is given. All other females are guaranteed to be in calf or to get in calf.

Purchaser required to try females six months, if barren we reserve the right to have them returned to us for six months' trial, if we succeed in getting them in calf, same will be returned to purchaser at his expense, otherwise money will be refunded.

Bulls guaranteed under the same terms, bulls not to run with herd. My son, J. L. Harshbarger, will maintain a breeding herd on one of my farms which makes this guarantee possible. I will not be responsible for any accident or injury which may occur after the sale.

Location of Sale—Sale will be held in the Creed Sale Pavilion, Humboldt, Neb., Wednesday, May 3, 1922, commencing at 1 o'clock sharp.

Mail Bids—Sent to either of the auctioneers or fieldmen in our care, will be carefully and justly handled.

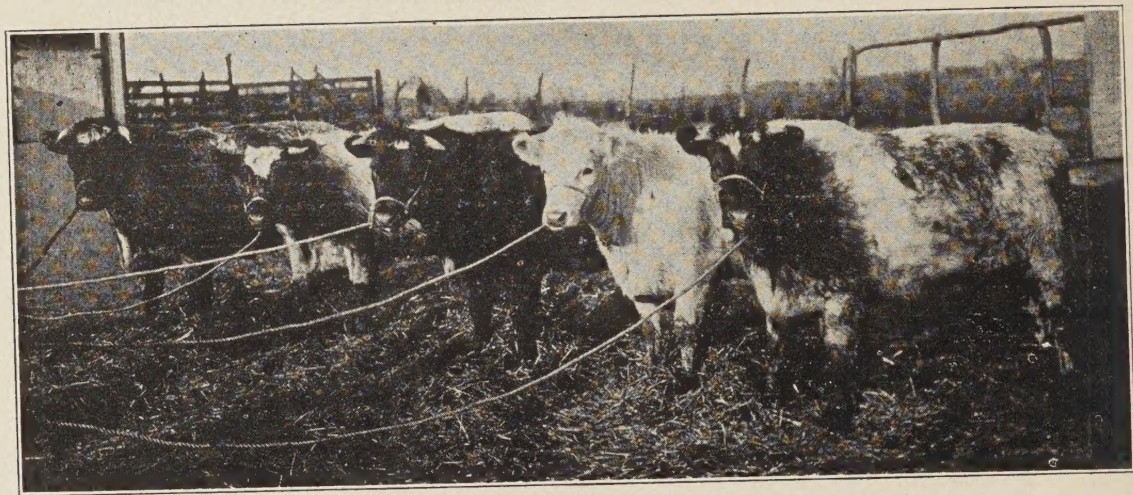

Terms of Sale—Cash, or three, six or nine months time, on approved note drawing 8 per cent interest from date. Bring your bank reference, for use of the clerk, if time is wanted.

Frank Butterfield, Clerk, State Bank of Humboldt.

Fieldmen—Francis Martin of The Breeders Gazette; Jesse Johnson of the Capper Publications; John Miller, Journal-Stockman, and H. C. McKelvis of the Nebraska Farmer.

Entertainment—Parties from a distance will be entertained at the Park or Central Hotels at my expense.

Auctioneers—Col. N. G. Kraschel, Col. Herman Ernst and Col. J. C. Price.
